GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS REEVES TO WAKE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Sen. Eric Reeves (D-Wake) of Raleigh to the Wake Technical Community College Board of Trustees.

Reeves is a member of the N.C. State Senate and an attorney with Blanchard, Jenkins, Louis and Styers. He is also a member of the N.C. Capital Planning Commission and Governor's Crime Commission and chair of the Committee on Information Technology and the Heart Disease and Stroke Prevention Task Force. Reeves received his bachelor's degree in History, Medieval and Renaissance Studies from Duke University and his law degree from Wake Forest University.

Board duties are to elect a president, employ personnel, purchase land necessary for the college's operation, apply standards and regulations to admission and graduation, receive gifts and donations, and provide instructional services. There are 14 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members.
